

OREGON—Madras (OR) Christian Church, a Bible-based church that averages 65-80 in worship attendance, is seeking a full-time minister. The independent Christian church was founded on the principles of the Restoration Movement. The church believes in free will and that salvation is a free gift from God through his Son, Jesus Christ. The church believes it is the choice of a person to either accept this gift or reject it. “Choose this day a blessing or a curse.” The church believes the Bible is the Holy Spirit inspired, infallible Word of God. The versions of the text that are the closest to the original languages spoken by Christ, His disciples, and the prophets are versions they accept and use as study and worship guides. Their previous pastor and corresponding Bible colleges use the New American Standard Bible. The church believes in a plan of salvation that includes hearing and believing the gospel, confessing Christ before witnesses, immersion baptism in water as a demonstration of faith and in obedience to the Great Commission and example by Christ to receive the free gift of the Holy Spirit. And lastly, the living a Christian life as best one can until death. Compensation consists of salary, vacation time, convention time and allowance, and continuing education expense assistance. These items are negotiable based on education, experience, and personal needs. In addition to the general ministerial duties of preaching, teaching, visitation, and church camp participation, the successful candidate will desire to work to reach youth adults, youth families, and to grow the youth age group (middle school to high school). Interested individuals may submit a resume and a list of three professional/personal references to Harry231940@gmail.com or the Ministry Search Committee, P.O. Box 834, Madras, OR 97741. If you have questions, call (541) 419-6184.
