

Associate Minister Student and Young Adult

Are you ready to rumble for the Kingdom of God and take ground for Christ in the Northwest Houston area? Then we've got the job for you. Cypress Crossings Christian Church is strategically moving out of COVID with a deliberate purpose and vision for the future. In this process, we are re-booting C4 and have identified the need for a more robust leadership in student ministries and executive organizations for overall ministry function. The right visionary and hard-working person will join our Lead Minister and part-time staff. The part-time team includes an administrative assistant, children's director, worship director, and volunteer pastoral care team leader. The opportunity is enormous as "We are committed to Fully Loving God by Actively Following Jesus and Compassionately Reaching others."

Cypress, Texas, is located on the Northwest side of the greater Houston metroplex and contains Texas's third-largest public school district. Like most of Houston, Cypress is rich in diversity, continues to grow in population, and carries incredible potential for Kingdom growth.
